Disputes are an inevitable feature of the sports business. We guide clients through available options for commencing, maintaining or defending a claim, whether it be via the courts or arbitration in India or internationally.

We take a fearless, commercial and results-driven approach to litigation and manage the case cost-effectively without compromising standard of legal services.

Mediation and ADR

Courts and sports bodies are keener than ever to get the matter settled through mediation and ADR. We advocate mediation where appropriate as a means to enable a dispute to be settled both quickly and relatively inexpensively.
